

The Jean Monnet Project 'Illinois-Leuven Conversations on Transatlanticism and Europe', organized by the University of Leuven and University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign kindly invites you to

ROUNDTABLE

Present Transatlantic Relations in a Global Perspective

Solid, fragile or simply eroding?

Welcoming Words

Prof. Patrick Pasture, Director 'Master of European Studies: Transnational and Global Perspectives', KU Leuven

Part 1: 14:40-16:00

The Present Transatlantic Security Community: solid, fragile, or simply eroding?

Chair:

Dr. Gustavo Müller, Centre for European Studies, KU Leuven

Speakers:

Mr. Javier Nino-Perez, Head of Unit, United States and Canada Division, MD 'Americas', European External Action Service

Mr. Alexandros Papaioannou, Political Affairs and Security Policy Division, NATO

Ms. Anne Verhelst, Leuven Centre for Global Governance Studies

Lucas Henry, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Part 2: 16:10-17:30

Present Transatlantic Relations in the Area of Trade and Sustainability: solid, fragile or simply eroding?

Chair:

Prof. Kolja Raube, Coordinator 'Master of European Studies: Transnational and Global Perspectives' and member of Leuven International and European Studies (LINES), KU Leuven

Speakers:

Prof. Michael Smith, University of Warwick and Guest Professor KU Leuven

Mr. Hiddo Houben, Head of Unit, USA & Canada, DG Trade, European Commission

Ms. Elitsa Garnizova, London School of Economics

Prof. Jan Wouters, Jean Monnet Chair, Professor of International Law and Director of the Leuven Centre for Global Governance Studies, KU Leuven

Reception from 17:30 onwards

Date & Time

Monday, 18 March

14:30-17:30

Venue

Raadzaal
(SW 00.113)

Parkstraat 45,

3000 Leuven

Registration

Participation is free!

However, due to a limited number of seats, registration is necessary by sending an email to registrations@kuleuven.be until 14 March 2019 with subject line 'CEURO'